DAYTON CONTEMPORARY DANCE COMPANY TO APPEAR IN UD ARTS SERIES

DAYTON, Ohio, February 2, 1990--The Dayton Contemporary Dance Company (DCDC) will appear at the University of Dayton on Wednesday, Feb. 21 as part of the UD Arts Series. The performance will be held at 8 p.m. in the Kennedy Union Boll Theatre on campus.

Tickets are $10 and may be purchased in advance weekdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in Kennedy Union Room 231 on campus. Tickets will be available at the Boll Theatre box office beginning at 7:30 p.m. on the day of the performance.

Featuring contemporary dance that combines elements of modern, ballet and jazz dance techniques, the company has performed throughout the nation, winning audiences with its exuberance and mastery. The company's repertoire reflects the works of America's finest contemporary choreographers.

A factor in the success of DCDC, founded in 1968, is a tradition of commitment to the art of dance. "Even though a concert dance company is generally transient due to economics, we have been lucky enough to hold onto a nucleus of very professional, capable dancers throughout the years," said Jeraldne Blunden, founder and artistic director of the Dayton Contemporary Dance Company.
